Case No. 05-44481 (RDD)

(Jointly Administered)

Debtors.

LIMITED OBJECTION BY ROBERT BOSCH CORPORATION AND AFFILIATES TO FINANCING MOTION AND INTERIM DIP FINANCING ORDER, AND REQUEST BY BOSCH FOR ADEQUATE PROTECTION FOR PRE-PETITION SETOFF RIGHTS

Robert Bosch Corporation, on behalf of itself and its affiliates, hereby files this limited objection to the Financing Motion dated October 8, 2005 filed by debtors Delphi Corporation, et al (collectively, "Debtors") and the Interim DIP Financing Order dated October 12, 2005. Bosch objects to the Financing Motion and the Interim DIP Financing Order because they improperly attempt to subordinate pre-petition setoff rights. In addition, Bosch requests that it be granted a superior replacement lien as adequate protection for its pre-petition setoff rights.

Background

- 1. Debtors filed their voluntary bankruptcy petitions on October 8, 2005.

 Debtors continue to operate their business and manage their affairs as debtors in possession pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code.
- 2. Robert Bosch Corporation and its affiliates (including without limitation Robert Bosch GmbH) (collectively, "Bosch") are major suppliers to and major customers of Debtors. The Bosch entity with which Debtors do the significant majority of their business is Robert Bosch Corporation. As of the petition date, Debtors owed Robert Bosch Corporation an amount in excess of $16 million on account and Robert Bosch Corporation owed Debtors an amount in excess of $26 million on account.
- 3. Pursuant to applicable non-bankruptcy law as well as Section 553 of the Bankruptcy Code, Bosch is entitled to exercise its rights of setoff and recoupment in connection with the mutual debts owing between the parties.
- 4. On October 8, 2005, Debtors filed a "Financing Motion" requesting that this Court approve an interim and a final DIP financing order. On October 12, 2005, this Court entered the Interim DIP Financing Order.
- 5. Bosch objects to the Financing Motion and the Interim DIP Financing Order because they attempt to impair pre-petition setoff rights,² including those of Bosch. More specifically, Paragraph 18 of the Interim DIP Financing Order seeks to impair pre-petition setoff rights by making them subordinate to the following: (1) the "Carve Out;" (2) any liens and security interests granted in the Interim DIP Financing Order or under any DIP Document to or for the benefit of the Agent and the DIP Lenders; and (3) the Adequate Protection Liens granted to the Pre-Petition Agent and the Pre-Petition Lenders. Paragraph 18 provides in its entirety as follows:

¹ Aside from amounts owing on account, additional amounts may be owing from Debtors to Robert Bosch Corporation and other Bosch entities for warranty and other claims. Bosch reserves its right to assert setoff and recoupment rights for these claims.

² The Financing Order and Paragraph 18 of the Interim DIP Financing Order only address setoff rights and not recoupment rights. Bosch's recoupment rights therefore are unaffected by the Interim DIP Financing Order and they would not be affected by any final order approving the Financing Motion.

18. Junior Adequate Protection Liens. To the extent any person has a valid, perfected, enforceable, and non-avoidable right to set off in respect of its prepetition payables as of the Petition Date, such person shall be granted a replacement lien (a "Junior Adequate Protection Lien") under section 361(2) of the Bankruptcy Code in all of the Debtors' right, title, and interest in, to and under the Collateral securing the Debtors' Obligations under the DIP Credit Agreement, subject and subordinate (i) to the Carve Out, (ii) to any liens and security interests granted hereunder or under any DIP Document to or for the benefit of the Agent and the DIP Lenders and (iii) to the Adequate Protection Liens granted to the Pre-Petition Agent and the Pre-Petition Secured Lenders. Prior to the entry of the Final Order, nothing contained in this Order shall affect the rights of such person to request further or different adequate protection under section 361 of the Bankruptcy Code; provided, however, that the Debtors or any other party may contest any such request, including the continuation of the adequate protection liens granted hereby to such person.

(See Interim DIP Financing Order at ¶ 18.)

6. As explained below, Bosch objects to the provisions of Financing Motion and Paragraph 18 of the Interim DIP Financing Order insofar as they address pre-petition setoff rights because Bosch lacks adequate protection due to the proposed subordination of its setoff rights. Further, Bosch seeks adequate protection for its setoff rights as authorized by Paragraph 18 of the Interim DIP Financing Order in the form of a superior replacement lien on Debtors' right to recover pre-petition amounts actually or allegedly owing from Bosch to Debtors.

Argument

- A. The Interim DIP Financing Order Improperly Subordinates Pre-Petition Setoff Rights Without Providing Adequate Protection to Bosch.
- 7. Bosch objects to the Financing Motion and the Interim DIP Financing Order because they attempt to impair pre-petition setoff rights by making those rights subordinate to three other categories of liens and claims. Debtors cannot subordinate those setoff rights because they have not provided adequate protection to Bosch.
- As of the petition date, Bosch's setoff rights were superior to the claims of the pre-petition secured lenders and other parties. Section 9-404(a)(2) of the Uniform Commercial Code generally provides that a secured party's rights in collateral are subject and subordinate to any setoff defense, such as Bosch's setoff rights, so long as the setoff claim arose prior to the time the account debtor received a notification of the assignment authenticated by the assignor or assignee. Bosch did not receive any such authenticated notification and therefore its setoff rights have priority over prior perfected security interests. Indeed, debtor Delphi Automotive Systems, LLC has recently litigated this issue and it agrees that pre-petition setoff rights take priority over prior perfected security interests. See In re U.S. Aeroteam, Inc. (U.S. Aeroteam, Inc. v. Delphi Automotive Systems, LLC), 327 B.R. 852, 871 (Bankr. S.D. Ohio 2005) ("Furthermore, Delphi's setoff rights prevail over Provident Bank's security interest and [debtor's] accounts receivable.")
- 9. Section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code prohibits subordination of liens in connection with obtaining post-petition credit unless adequate protection is given to the lienholder. 11 U.S.C. § 364(d)(1)(B). Debtors bear the burden of proof on that issue. 11 U.S.C. § 364(d)(2). Debtors cannot meet their burden of proof in this instance because Bosch is not being provided with adequate protection. As explained above, Bosch currently has pre-petition setoff rights that are superior to the interests of all other third parties. That changes dramatically, however, under Paragraph 18 of the Interim DIP Financing Order. That paragraph grants holders of setoff rights a "Junior Adequate Protection Lien," but that lien would not provide Bosch with adequate protection because it would subject and subordinate Bosch's setoff rights to three other liens or claims: (a) the Carve Out; (2) any liens and security interests granted in the Interim DIP Financing Order or under any DIP Document to or for the benefit of the Agent and the DIP Lenders; and (3) the Adequate Protection Liens granted to the Pre-Petition Agent and the Pre-Petition Lenders.

- 10. Consequently, Paragraph 18 of the Interim DIP Financing Order impairs Bosch's existing setoff rights by subordinating them to three other categories of liens or claims. Debtors cannot satisfy their burden of showing that Bosch has been provided with adequate protection, and therefore Debtors' attempt to subordinate setoff rights must be denied.
 - B. Bosch Requests That It Be Granted Adequate Protection Consisting of a Superior Lien on Debtors' Right to Recover Pre-Petition Amounts Actually or Allegedly Owing from Bosch to the Debtors.
- 11. As explained above, any impairment or subordination of setoff rights is improper and should not be allowed. As authorized by Paragraph 18 of the Interim DIP Financing Order,³ Bosch hereby requests adequate protection for its pre-petition setoff and recoupment rights. Bosch currently maintains a superior lien on Debtors' right to recover pre-petition amounts actually or allegedly owing from Bosch to Debtor, and Bosch requests adequate protection in the form of a superior replacement lien on that same collateral. That is simply maintaining the status quo and Bosch is entitled to that relief as adequate protection under Section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code.

³ Paragraph 18 of the Interim DIP Financing Order states that "nothing contained in this Order shall affect the rights of [any holder of setoff rights] to request further or different adequate protection under section 361 of the Bankruptcy Code"

05-44481-rdd Doc 428 Filed 10/20/05 Entered 10/20/05 11:26:39 Main Document Pa 6 of 6

12. For the reasons set forth above, Bosch objects to the Financing Motion, the Interim DIP Financing Motion and any proposed final DIP financing order that will subordinate or otherwise impair Bosch's pre-petition setoff rights. In addition, Bosch requests that it be granted adequate protection for its pre-petition setoff and recoupment rights in the form of the Court granting a superior replacement lien on Debtors' right to recover pre-petition amounts actually or allegedly owing from Bosch to Debtors.

WHEREFORE, Bosch objects to the Financing Motion, the Interim DIP

Financing Order and any proposed final DIP financing order to the extent they impair or subordinate the setoff rights of Bosch. In addition, Bosch requests that the Court grant Bosch adequate protection in the form of a superior replacement lien on Debtors' rights to recover pre-petition amounts actually or allegedly owing from Bosch to Debtors (whether liquidated or unliquidated, fixed or contingent, disputed or undisputed) and that the Court grant Bosch such other and further relief as may be just and proper.
